SECTION 1: LEASED EMPLOYEE STATUS; MATRIX IS NOT THE WORKSITE/Common Law Employer; UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

Matrix and the client company named on the first page of this Employee Enrollment Form (“Client”) have entered into an agreement whereby Matrix leases employees to Client. Under that agreement, upon my acceptance by Matrix as a leased employee, I will be co-employed by Matrix and Client, with Matrix being my administrative employer and Client being my common law and worksite employer. I understand that I will not be accepted as a leased employee of Matrix until the satisfactory completion of all documentation and other employment requirements of Matrix. If accepted as a leased employee of Matrix, I understand (i) that my employment with Matrix will begin as of the first date for which Client reports my work hours to Matrix that are actually paid by Matrix, (ii) that my employment with Matrix is “at-will,” which means that Matrix or I may terminate my employment with Matrix at any time, (iii) that there will be an initial 90-day probationary period during which my employment may be terminated for any reason, and (iv) that if Matrix does not receive payment from Client for services that I perform, Matrix will only be liable to me for the applicable minimum wage (or the legally required overtime pay at the applicable minimum wage rate) for any such pay period, and I agree to this method of compensation.

IF I BECOME A LEASED EMPLOYEE OF MATRIX, I UNDERSTAND THAT UPON THE CONCLUSION OF EACH JOB ASSIGNMENT (I.E. IF MY EMPLOYMENT WITH ANY CLIENT COMPANY IS TERMINATED), REGARDLESS OF DURATION, I MUST CONTACT MATRIX FOR REASSIGNMENT WITHIN 48 HOURS OF SUCH TERMINATION. MY FAILURE TO CONTACT MATRIX MAY RESULT IN THE DENIAL OF UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS. IN ADDITION, IF I DO NOT RECEIVE WAGES, SALARY, OR OTHER COMPENSATION (“COMPENSATION”) FROM MATRIX ON A REGULARLY SCHEDULED PAY DAY AND I DO NOT CONTACT MATRIX BY 9:00 A.M. ON THE THIRD DAY FOLLOWING SUCH SCHEDULED PAY DAY, THEN I SHALL BE DEEMED TO HAVE VOLUNTARILY RESIGNED FROM EMPLOYMENT WITH MATRIX AS OF THE LAST DAY FOR WHICH I RECEIVED COMPENSATION FROM MATRIX. MY FAILURE TO CONTACT MATRIX MAY RESULT IN THE DENIAL OF UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS.

I agree that while employed by Matrix, I am prohibited from receiving Compensation directly from Client (whether by cash, check, or otherwise) or, if I am reassigned by Matrix to a different client, from that different client. I agree (i) that my acceptance of any such Compensation during any Matrix pay period (whether weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly, or monthly) constitutes my voluntary resignation from employment with Matrix for the entirety of such pay period (a “Non-Matrix Pay Period”), and (ii) that my receipt of Compensation from Matrix during such Non-Matrix Pay Period shall not affect my status as being solely employed by Client (or any subsequent client) during any such Non-Matrix Pay Period.

SECTION 2: WORK RELATED INJURIES; WORKERS’ COMPENSATION INSURANCE

I understand that during my employment with Matrix, I may be covered by a workers’ compensation insurance policy obtained by either Client or by Matrix. I acknowledge that if I have received a separate notice informing me that workers’ compensation insurance has been or will be provided by Client, that Client is responsible for obtaining such insurance and that Matrix shall have no liability for Client’s failure to obtain workers’ compensation insurance for me. If I have not received such a notice and Matrix is responsible for obtaining workers’ compensation insurance for me, (i) then prior to my acceptance as a leased employee of Matrix, Matrix shall not be responsible for any work related injury I may suffer, (ii) if I accept Compensation from Client during any Non-Matrix Pay Period (see Section 1 above), then I will not be covered by Matrix’s workers’ compensation insurance policy if I suffer a work related injury during any such pay period, and (iii) if I do not receive Compensation from Matrix on a regularly scheduled pay day and my employment with Matrix has not already been terminated, then (a) I will be deemed to have voluntarily resigned and my employment with Matrix shall be deemed terminated as of the last day for which I received Compensation from Matrix, and (b) I will not be covered by Matrix’s workers’ compensation insurance policy as of that resignation date.

SECTION 3: POLICY ON DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, AND RETALIATION

I acknowledge and understand (i) that I am required to promptly report all incidents of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, regardless of the offender’s identity or position, to Client, (ii) that Client is responsible for investigating any complaint and taking appropriate action, if any is determined to be necessary, to end or remediate the discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, and (iii) that Matrix does not have actual control over me, my work, or my worksite with Client, and as such Matrix is not in a position to know of any alleged discrimination, harassment, or retaliation. All actions to end or remediate any discrimination, harassment, or retaliation must come solely from Client.

SECTION 4: ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF DRUG FREE WORKPLACE; AGREEMENT TO SUBMIT TO DRUG TEST AND RELEASE OF RESULTS

I understand that Matrix maintains a drug free workplace policy requiring all employees to report to work in a substance free condition. Employees found on the job to be under the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol, or who violate this policy in other ways, may be terminated. I understand that if I am injured on the job and either refuse to be tested or test positive for illegal drugs or alcohol, I may forfeit eligibility for all workers’ compensation medical and indemnity benefits. I understand that as a condition of my initial and continued employment, (i) job applicant drug testing, (ii) reasonable suspicion drug and/or alcohol testing, (iii) routing fitness for duty drug and/or alcohol testing, (iv) random drug and/or alcohol testing, and (v) follow up testing, Matrix may require me to undergo substance screening (drug testing) by urinalysis, blood (for alcohol), hair follicle, or other testing procedure. I hereby agree to submit to such tests, including follow up rehabilitation testing and the required post accident testing (post accident testing is required within 24 hours following any work related injury). I further consent to the results of any such drug or alcohol tests being released to authorized representatives of Matrix and Client by the Medical Review Officer (MRO). I understand that I am legally authorized to receive a copy of this consent form if requested. The results will not be released to any additional parties without my written authorization, except that Matrix and Client, their agents, and the testing laboratory will have access to the test results and may disclose such results to their agents and/or attorneys in connection with workers’ compensation proceedings, and may use the test results when relevant to their defense in other civil or administrative matters. I hereby release any testing facility personnel and/or any physicians who have tested me from any liability arising from a release or use of any test results, written reports, medical records, and data concerning my tests to the appropriate Matrix and Client officials. I further release all Matrix and Client officials from liability arising from the release or use of the test results. I understand that the drug free workplace policy and related documents are not intended to constitute a contract between Matrix and/or Client and me. I have read, or had read to me, a copy of the drug free workplace policy and I understand the consequences of violating the policy, which may include the termination of my employment. If I did not understand the policy, I asked for and received an explanation. I acknowledge receipt of a copy of the drug free workplace policy contained within the Employee Handbook that I have received.

SECTION 5: RECEIPT OF EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK; MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

I acknowledge (i) having received, read, and understood the Matrix employee handbook; (ii) that the handbook does not establish a contractual relationship with Matrix; and (iii) that the handbook may be changed at any time is not a guarantee of future or present employment policies. I further understand that neither the handbook nor any verbal or written statement by any officer or employee of Matrix or Client constitutes an employment contract. I understand that additional copies of the employee handbook are available by calling Matrix at (866) 453-2722 or online at www.matrixonesource.com. I understand that any misrepresentation, omission of fact, or incomplete information discovered after my employment has begun may be grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. I understand that I am an “at-will” employee and that either Matrix or I can terminate my employment at any time, and that no person, including Client, has the authority to enter into any agreement to the contrary. I understand and agree that, if applicable, Matrix may allocate tips when necessary based on “hours worked.” Tip allocation becomes necessary when total reported tips for the worksite employer store are less than 8% of store sales. I understand that, if I am a tipped employee, Matrix is taking a tip credit on my hourly rate of pay as permitted by law.

I ACKNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE READ AND FULLY UNDERSTAND AND AGREE TO ALL OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS ON THIS PAGE

Form W-4 (2018)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2018 if both of the following apply.

- For 2017 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2018 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2018 expires February 15, 2019. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2018 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2018. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Other Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note:

Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your qualifying children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31 and must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line F. Credit for other dependents.

When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your dependents that don't qualify for the child tax credit, such as any dependent children age 17 and older. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 505. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of
